New school creates new traditions one signature at a time

Aspen Meadow students sign library wall before it's wallpapered

- WHAT: All students at Aspen Meadow Elementary School get to “leave their mark” by signing their names on a giant library wall before the wallcovering is put up to complete the school. The new school has 495 students enrolled.
- WHO: Students from Aspen Meadow Elementary School, specifically Mrs. Jenna Kuhn’s 1st grade class.
- WHEN: 10:30 a.m., Monday, Aug. 16, 2021
- WHERE: Aspen Meadow Elementary School
2650 Hathaway Rd.
Fort Wayne, IN 46818
- Use main entrance at Door 1 on the west side of the building.
- WHY: Students are learning a lesson about how they can make a mark or leave an impression on something and it will remain there long after it is covered. Things they do, choices they make daily can and do leave a mark on others.

Aspen Meadow’s mission is for students to feel respected, included and supported to grow their love of learning. More information about Aspen Meadow Elementary School may be found at am.nacs.k12.in.us. Aspen Meadow Elementary School is one of 11 schools in Northwest Allen County Schools serving nearly 8,000 students.
