Nutrition Webquest

Webquest Definition: A webquest is a unique way for students to interact with each other, and to learn more about a specific topic using technology.

http://cgmsfacs.home.comcast.net/~cgmsfacs/wq_nutrition.htm

Students will learn what a healthy diet is. Students will complete a worksheet (link found on website) This project is for grades 6-8th.

http://teach.fcps.net/trt10/Webquests/nutrition.htm

This webquest will teach students about the food pyramid, dietary needs, and nutrients. Students will gather information with help from a worksheet, then they will write a newsletter that has two articles. This project is for grades 5-7th.

http://teach.linwoodschools.org/bcoyle/nutrition_files/Why%20Wait%20to%20be%20Healthy%20web%20quest_files/Why%20Wait%20to%20be%20Healthy%20web%20quest.htm

Students will learn how to maintain a healthy weight. Students will design a healthy eating habit and exercise routine for uncle Rupert in groups of two. This project is for students in grades 6-9th.
Students will develop an understanding about the foods that they eat. The students' job is to complete a spreadsheet worksheet, take a quick quiz, and display knowledge in a powerpoint. This project is for students in grades 6-8th.

http://zunal.com/webquest.php?w=17702

Students will learn to become more independent and make their own choices. Students will create a project is to create an ad to help teens learn more about nutrition and to promote healthy eating. This project is for students in grades 6-8th.

Created By: Aubrey
Last Updated: 5/5/14